Thursday, September 22, 2022 2:30 pm

Meeting was called to order at 2:30pm by Chairman Tyler. Commissioners Yasko and Dorren were present along with DPW Director Bill Bernard. There was no public attendance.

Chairman Tyler opened the meeting with a discussion of the Capital Plan for 2024. The Commission is asking for a total of $81,600 under the 2024 Capital Plan.

$ 11,000 for the completion of the hedges at North Cemetery
$ 50,000 for the Restoration of turf at the North and South Cemeteries
$ 4,100 for the Survey and Layout of plots in the new section of the North Cemetery.
$ 16,500 for the Repairs of the 16th and 17th century Headstone repairs
$ 81,600 Total

If the Capital Plan is not approved the Commission will be asking for an extra $4,000 to do the North Cemetery Hedges which will be added to the $ 10,000 purchase services requested to finish the Hedges. Vote was 3-0 to approve the Capital Plan

The Commission asked DPW Director Bill Bernard to look into removing the wood that is being stored at the new extension area of the North Cemetery to get ready for the surveying and potential use of the land for new plots in the future.

The Minutes of August 18, 2022 meeting were amended and approved by a vote of 3-0.

Motion was made to send Helen Balcom a Thank You card for doing the flower beds in front of the North and South Cemeteries. Motion passed 3-0

Chapter 310 Cemetery Rules and Regulations draft were reviewed and will await comments from DPW Director.

Meeting adjourned at 3:35pm Motion passed 3-0
