 - FY 2018 Budget – Right on target (actually 4% below) for this time of year.
 - Additional funds transferred into Mileage Reimbursement because more staff are traveling to courses, other libraries, seminars, etc. A good thing!
 - For FY 2019 budget we need to anticipate additional money for Office Supplies due to increased program attendance. Another good thing!
 - Discussion about how valuable Patti is and how much she will be missed when she retires, after 35 years of service to the LPL, at the end of March '18!
 - Trust Funds – Continued discussion about moving Bartholomew funds (which considerably underperform the Touchstone funds) into management by Touchstone. Martha to investigate what is needed to be coordinated with the Town of Lunenburg to get this done.

- Thank you notes
 - Thanks to Kate all completed and being sent.
- Friends of Lunenburg Public Library Update

- Different fund-raising initiatives discussed – e.g. a Cookie Walk, Open Microphone Night, Moth Radio Hour (story telling about Lunenburg.)
 - Also some discussion about the perception that the bi-annual book sale revenue is declining due to LPL's continuous book sale which generates approximately $400/mo. for Friends. The analytics do not necessarily support this perception.
